

With peoples lack of cordial respect for one another regarding cell phones on the street not to mention in restaurants, theatres and other Phones on Planes would cause an uproar if allowed. One place where some rest in the face of crying babies, altitude pressure, lack of fresh air and more cell phone use for needless conversations would enrage flyers. If a phone is so important let people pay for them using onboard phones thus limiting the talk time.

NYC